After about an hour's drive we reach Pelican Point where the kayaks are prepared for paddling. Pelican Point is home to some 50,000 Cape fur seals which are habituated to our kayaks. The seals are inquisitive and often come within touching distance. Our route encompasses the protected side of the peninsula. After kayaking, we recharge over a late breakfast with fresh rolls and coffee and tea, before heading back to Walvis Bay. Return time is between 12h00 and 12h30.

Days 5 - 6:

Damaraland Adventurer Camp, Damaraland Wilderness Explorations

Damaraland Adventurer Camp is located in a special place in the heart of the rocky desert of Damaraland, an ancient, starkly beautiful landscape. Looking south from camp toward the imposing Brandberg Mountains, Damaraland offers you endless vistas and one of the best wilderness areas in Namibia. Early morning mists, generated by the clash between the icy Atlantic Ocean and the warm desert air of the Skeleton Coast, drift inland along the river valley, providing sustenance to the flora and fauna of the region, hence the high density of wildlife in the area. Accommodation is in 5 "maxi" dome tents pitched on timber platforms that allow for a small viewing deck where you can sit for hours and contemplate the surrounding beauty. Tucked away in and amongst the sandstone hills, each tent is surprisingly spacious with wooden beds with mattresses and cotton linen. En-suite bathrooms with toilet and shower are located at the back of each tent.
